

I am writing about the LPFM possibly taking over current FM stations. I listen to K-LOVE daily and think it would hurt the Cincinnati community if it were taken off the air. I get National and world news from Christian perspectives and I am able to listen to the radio in the car without worrying what my children may hear. Please consider the impact that LPFM would have on current programming. Thank you.
Sincerely, Sara Valentine